

"MEET ME AT THE MIDWAY!"

It's a phrase uttered often by Fairgoers young and not-so-young, tall and not-too-small. Just seeing the famous Indiana State Fair midway arch in the distance is enough to bring a smile to your face (and maybe a little flutter to your tummy). Farrow Shows, a leader in the amusement ride industry, provides all the classic rides and games, and plenty of great wristband specials that will have everyone saying "meet me at the midway."

Midway Hours:	Monday - Thursday	Noon - 11 pm
	Fridays	Noon - 1 am

Welcome to the 2003 Indiana State Fair!

The Indiana State Fair is more than a summertime event, it is a celebration of Indiana's past, present and future. It is that magical time when Hoosiers from far and near gather for 12 days of fun, enrichment and education. And it is my pleasure to welcome you to this year's celebration of Hoosier heritage.

The first Fair, put on back in 1852, was designed to allow Hoosiers to share ideas and showcase Indiana's best and brightest. The same holds true today.

Every year, Judy and I are amazed at how the State Fair continues to reflect the growth of Hoosier values while staying true to the state's traditions. We wouldn't miss it for the world!

So whether you're here for the great food, the awesome exhibits, the exciting rides or the non-stop entertainment, you'll leave the Indiana State Fair with memories that last a lifetime. Enjoy!

Sincerely,

Frank O'Bannon

Frank O'Bannon
Governor of Indiana

Exhibits on Display

4-H Exhibit Hall

This is the home for Indiana's finest 4-H exhibits, contests and demonstrations. If interested in learning more about 4-H, please contact your local county extension educator or call 1-888-EXT-INFO.

Brickyard Plaza presented by the Indianapolis Motor Speedway

Named for the 3.2 million bricks that once covered the track, the "Brickyard" is also known as the "Racing Capital of the World." The Brickyard Plaza on the north side of the Fairgrounds brings the excitement of the three largest sporting events in the world: The Indianapolis 500, Brickyard 400 and the United States Grand Prix. Come experience the "Mini-Indy 500" track for kids at the Plaza every day from 11 am to 5 pm. This FREE activity gives kids a chance to pedal their way to the checkered flag! See the activity and autograph session schedule posted at the Brickyard Plaza for details.

Center for Agricultural Science & Heritage (CASH)

Also known as "The Barn" and located on the south side of 38th Street across from the main gate, CASH hosts many Fair events, including the 11th annual Country Barn Dinner on August 7 (reservations required).

Clarian Dance for Health Stage

Do you like to clog, two-step, square dance, line dance or tap dance? Do you like to watch others who do? Then this is the place for you. Located east of the Communications Building near Gate 6, the Clarian Dance for Health Stage is always abuzz with activity.

Exposition Hall

Enjoy exciting new products and great demonstrations from Indiana's premier companies proudly displayed in the "Made in Indiana" area. Step into the future as Indiana 2016 displays robots, computer games and other fascinating projects; display change daily. The Higher Education booth offers information on colleges, careers and financial aid. In addition to all Indiana public and private colleges, the Indiana Career and Postsecondary Advancement Center (ICPAC) will be on hand to help answer all your career and education questions. For your official state travel publications, see the Indiana Tourism Booth.

Home & Family Arts Building

Cooking and fashions are just two of the many things you'll discover here. Treat your taste buds with daily culinary demonstrations. Other daily demonstrations include needle art, china painting, woodcarving, and leathercrafting. Visit the past by viewing the second floor antiques or peak your literary interest in The Book Nook. Young Hoosier Pianists entertain daily in the Fine Arts Gallery and have their contest finals on August 16 in the Third Floor Auditorium.

Hook's Discovery & Learning Center/ Historical Drug Store & Pharmacy Museum

Venture back to simpler times with delicious ice cream treats from a vintage 1875 soda fountain (available daily 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.). You'll also find other sundries, gifts and candy here. The center's staff presents modern interactive educational activities in life sciences from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sunday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Saturday.

Marsh Ag/Hort Building

This is where you will find top 4-H and Open Class agriculture and horticulture exhibits like the largest watermelon and tallest sunflower. You will immediately notice the 14-foot high cornucopia made entirely from organic materials in the front lobby. You can also learn how to improve your own garden by viewing the floral exhibits and regular demonstrations.

Natural Resources Building

See snakes, bird dogs and falcons at the DNR Building, which also showcases Indiana fish, wildlife and recreation resources. Enjoy the "Taste of the Wild" cookout August 9 and the highly popular "Snakes Alive" August 15 & 16. Check out the new store, Mother Nature's Mercantile, where you can find hundreds of items - from clothing to furniture - for outdoor enthusiasts.

Pfizer Fun Park

Family fun and entertainment is a constant here. This is where you'll find one of our new daily features, the Live Shark Encounter. The Purina Dog Chow Incredible Dog Team is back by popular demand performing three shows daily. Other kids activities throughout the Fair include pony rides, playground equipment, Super Stock Racers ($5/ride) and Little Hands on the Farm presented by Marsh Kids' Club where kids can learn what it's like to live and work on a real farm. Also, the Indiana Young Farmers pedal tractor pulls take place at 2 p.m. August 9, 10, and 16 near the picnic shelter.

Senior Citizens Building/ OrthoIndy Pavilion

This building is packed with intergenerational activities, exhibits and entertainment. Enjoy art exhibits, musicians, dancers and exciting educational presentations on topics such as nutrition, fitness, crafts and more in air-conditioned comfort. Join us as we honor the Martin H. Miller Senior Volunteer of the Year winners and our many dedicated veterans. There will be a free health fair on Veterans' Day, Sunday, August 17. Shuttle passes for seniors (55+) can be purchased for $1.50 and are good for unlimited rides for that day. Passes are free for seniors on Senior Day, Thursday, August 7.

Union Federal Bank Daily Parade on Union Federal Bank Main Street

Want to see all kinds of walking entertainment and get the full flavor of the Fair? One stroll down Union Federal Bank Main Street ought to do it. The Union Federal Bank Daily Parade rolls down this historic avenue every day at 6:30 p.m. (6 p.m. on Last Blast Sunday). Other feature events on Union Federal Bank Main Street include the Celebrity Parade of Tractors, the Indiana State Fair Old-fashioned Pancake Breakfast, the World's Largest Drive-thru Breakfast and the Last Blast Open Car Show.

Entertainment Park

From the Colgate Country Showdown to the Hispanic Cultural Music Celebration to Contemporary Christian Music Day to Pepsi Gospel Music Day, the WFMS Free Stage has music for everybody!

Agriculture & Education Opportunities

Animals on Display

You can't go too far around the Fair without seeing animals of all shapes, sizes, scents and sounds. From alpacas to the "World's Largest Male Hog," you can check out all kinds of interesting creatures. Never heard a rooster crow? Wander into the Poultry & Rabbit Barn. Haven't seen a Draft Horse up close? Step inside the Champions Pavilion (Draft Horse Barn). You'll be glad you did!

Edy's Grand Hall

The miracle of flight and physics are the focal points in this building with two great exhibits. The Children's Museum presents "FLIGHT: Where Adventures Take Off," a tribute to the Wright brothers' first flight 100 years ago. You can sit in a real helicopter, feel the breeze of a working wind tunnel and learn about many fascinating aviation feats. You'll also be amazed as Flagstar Bank presents Bryan Berg and his incredible creations from ordinary playing cards. There will be a special raffle to benefit St. Vincent Children's Hospital - see details at the Flagstar booth. This is also where you'll find the Indiana Farm Bureau's Project XL Interactive Arts Festival featuring live performances, exhibitions and demonstrations by Indiana teens.

Farm Bureau Building

Youth, food and fun are the focus with youth talent contests, a karate tournament, baton twirling and the 4-H Cat Show all taking place here. This is also where you'll find "A Taste from Indiana Farms," so bring the kids and an appetite! The building opens daily at 9 a.m.

Indiana State Fair Goat Mountain

If you like goats, you'll love our new Indiana State Fair Goat Mountain located just east of the DNR Building. This exhibit features various breeds of goats in a grassy habitat, complete with Indiana limestone boulders to climb on, a lean-to for shade and a demonstration area. The Indiana Dairy Goat Association also has on-site educational displays.

Little Hands on the Farm presented by Marsh Kids' Club

Located in the Pfizer Fun Park, Little Hands on the Farm is a great way for children to realize how hard work and fun go hand-in-hand on a farm. They can perform all kinds of farm-related tasks and see first-hand the fruits (or vegetables) of their labor. This is a nationally recognized program that has been reproduced by other fairs around the country because it's fun and educational for children and adults. Open daily 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Livestock Nursery presented by Toyota

Ever see a cow give birth? Here, you can! You can also try your hand at milking a cow and learn about all kinds of dairy and agricultural products. Located nearby, next to the Communications Building, FREE Barn Tours™ are available from 10:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Machinery Field

From tractors to garden rakes, there are bargains galore at Machinery Field! The Indiana Union Construction Industry will be on hand to offer apprenticeship demonstrations while area youth groups build replicas of union built facilities.

Morton Building/Indiana Young Farmers Association

Interactive exhibits and displays assist visitors to develop an appreciation for, and understanding of, the diverse agriculture industry. Enjoy the large waterfall, children's play area, tractor and combine simulators, landscaping ideas and safety awareness displays.

Pathway to Water Quality

Walk the path that water walks as it winds through the watershed - all the land that "sheds" rainwater to a common place. Tour the land-use regions that show how we use the land and care for our natural resources. Kids will discover nature's water recycling secrets at the Blue Traveler. Enjoy a drink of cool, clear water at the "Pathway" courtesy of USFilter. Open daily 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Pioneer Hi-Bred Our Land Pavilion

Explore Indiana's number one industry - agriculture - by visiting this State Fair showcase. You can test your knowledge and win prizes with interactive displays from Purdue University, the Commissioner of Agriculture and Indiana's Ag community exhibitors. Check out the live animal demonstrations, Roach Hill Downs and Red Gold Stage presentations.

Pioneer Village

"A Summer of Fun" defines the good old days on the farm, and that's just what you will see at the Pioneer Village. Visit with the ladies as they quilt, hook rugs, churn butter and cook the old-fashioned way. Our farmers will help you remember the wonderful times as they thresh grain, saw wonderful Indiana hardwoods, milk cows, make wooden shingles, squeeze sorghum, feed chickens and do much more. Wander amongst the long rows of beautifully restored farm tractors. Marvel at the thousands of farm toys. Sit down and rest for a spell and listen to our folk musicians as they render those fine old tunes of times past (check the posted schedule for performers). There will also be a splendid display of historic old Rumely tractors made right here in Indiana on Celebration Plaza.

Speed Barns

This is your chance to see some of the fastest harness racers in Indiana. Dan Patch, Her Ladyship and Single G have all raced around the famed "Track of Champions." Now you can see the barns that some of these great racers called home. Tours are from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

State Fair Gardens presented by McNamara

Enjoy the beauty of the 17,000 square foot, landscaped area immediately north of the Marsh Ag/Hort Building. Two entry plazas provide access to a wide variety of plant life surrounding demonstration areas, a fountain and walking paths. The Angie's List Resource Center features expert presentations on landscaping and outdoor home improvements.

Touchstone Energy FFA Pavilion

Entertaining and interactive family activities are what you will find in the FFA Pavilion. Come pet the farm animals in the Children's Barnyard, go fishing for prizes, or play a free round of miniature golf. You can also visit the new FFA Agricultural Express, a miniature train exhibit showcasing the various aspects of Indiana agriculture. Stroll through the beautiful Country Market offering many Hoosier-produced goods such as soybean candles, homemade candies, Amish noodles and homemade caramel corn. You can also learn about the food, fiber and natural resources industries throughout interactive student demonstrations and programs held throughout the day, sponsored by Dow Agro/Science.
